THE "AUSTRALIAN" BLEND

$USD

Just as merlot is used to flesh out the sometimes austere character of cabernet sauvignon the world over, syrah was once used in Bordeaux to do the same thing ~ adding spice, fruit and gusto to a reserved cabernet. In Australia that blend has become a classic, finding itself the base for many of the country's most highly regarded and serious wines and this selection, from some of Australia's better known producers, deftly illustrate the style.
